

Sermon Discussion Questions

Darwin is Dead | “Insult to Injury”

Reflection: Before reflecting on this week’s sermon, spend some time thinking about what God is doing in your life this week. What is he teaching you? What are you struggling with? What can we celebrate and how can we rejoice and worship God? What needs can we meet of people in our church or community? Who and where can we be serving? Who are you trying to reach and talk to about Jesus? Who have we been having gospel conversations with? Spend some time praying as we seek to reach our full potential in Christ and for our mission to make disciples.

Text: John 1:1-3

Sermon Recap/Reflection: Take some time reflecting on the following questions:

1. What especially stood out today?
2. Why would God highlight that for me today? (Why did I need that?)
3. What does that imply for my life? (How should I do life differently based on what God is showing me?)

Questions:

1. What kinds of things do we observe that have the marks of design?
2. Why is complexity a sign of creativity? What are some of the complex things that we see that support intelligent design?
3. Why does information mean intelligence?
4. How do the finely tuned forces of the universe point to higher intelligence?
5. What happens to morality when we remove God from the world? How have we seen this happen before?
6. If people have a sense of right and wrong, where does that come from? How does this support design?
7. Which takes more faith: Darwinism or design?
8. What questions do we still have with regards to Darwinism and intelligent design?
9. How can we take the information we have learned to engage with those around us?
